Ganesh Chaturthi is a ten-day festival celebrated to honour the birth of Lord Ganesha, the God of Wisdom and one who obliterates the obstacles in one's life.

Ganesh Chaturthi is marked with the installation of Lord Ganesha's clay idols by families in their homes, or publicly on grand pandals (marquee or huge pavilion).

What were originally simple idols made in mud that would dissolve in water, have recently been replaced with POP (Plaster of Paris) idols painted with synthetic colours that don't dissolve in water
