For k=7,Using Euclidean distance, the above graph was obtained which clearly shows that the residual variance becomes constant after dimensions are increased upto 3 which is the expected value as the images given show movement of arms about the shoulder in one direction and elbow in two directions.

Dimensionality=3